

SOLWorld 2007 TORONTO SF SALON
PROPOSAL FOR CONTRIBUTION

EVENT THEME: Using SF as a catalyst to enhance our management and practice skills

Title of Session (max. 10 words, will be published in the program):

--

Short description (max. 45 words, will be published in the program):

- Goal / content in short form
- Area or aspect of SF work in the management which will be covered
- Learning / benefits for the participants

Max. 45 Words

--

Detailed Description: Content / process / participant's experiences (please describe the content in 300 words or less; will be published in the program)

300 words Max.

--

Learning for the participants: (After attending your session, the participants will be able to:)

--

Learning - for you: (What would you like to learn and discover with us in this session? How would you like to use the help of a member of the organizing team?)

--

SOLWorld 2007 TORONTO SF SALON
PROPOSAL FOR CONTRIBUTION

EVENT THEME: Using SF as a catalyst to enhance our management and practice skills

Methods of presentation and interactions with the participants:

(How would you like to involve the rest of the group - plan for around twenty to thirty people with SF experience. What variety of processes would you like to use (prepared inputs, exercises, activities, demonstrations-, consultations etc?)

Audiovisual needs - which presentation-media do you need?

Session Length:

60 min

90 min

Other?

Your Name as Contributor (written as you would like to see it in the program):

Your Company / Organization (optional, will be published in the program):

What would you like to see as a short "profile" of you person in the program (max. 45 words)?

Your email / website to be published in the program (optional):

Address, phone number, email for our internal communication only:

Please describe your relevant SF experience:

I agree that if my proposal is accepted, I will attend and participate in the entire SOLWorld 2007 Toronto SF Salon.

SIGNATURE:

Thank you! Please submit by December 1, 2006 as an attachment to:

SFToronto2007@corpjesters.com