

SOL 2006 TORONTO SF SALON

Using SF as a catalyst to enhance our management and practice skills

THE APPROACH

- Date: Feb 2 – 4, 2007
- Sub-theme 'In the future', i.e., learning leading to action
- Location – Downtown Toronto
- Attendees – 25 including several guests from Europe
- Virtual aspect – live blogs and Skype interactivity

Friday	Topic	Note
Noon to 5.00 pm	An introduction to Solutions Focus	For people new to SF
6.00 pm onwards	Opening ceremony (at a pub / improv location) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Welcome and present the approach for Saturday - Hold a 'wake' for problem focus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fun speeches acknowledging the strengths of the dearly departed problem focus - Group activity using a non-verbal music / improv 	Informal / social - a set up for Saturday. Friday evening - pay as you go
Saturday
9.00 am	Plenary <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Appreciation of Friday activities and of each other - Roundtable on SF as a catalyst - Set up breakouts + concept of action orientation 'In the future'
10.00	Skype Cast conversation with European + other SOL SF people	Topic to be determined
10.30	Breakouts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Proposals to come 	60 minutes each
12.30	Lunch
1.30	Breakouts continue <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Proposals to come 	60 minutes each
3.30	Plenary ' In the future ' Reports from breakouts – actions we plan to take (individually) Roundtable – what will be different in the future and how we will help make a difference
4.30	Open space / reflecting team submissions of topics for Sunday morning
5.00	End
Evening	Informal socializing	Fun event - to be determined
Sunday
9.30	Breakfast and open space / reflecting team sessions	Informal
Noon – 12.30	Summary of Sunday learning	